VOL. III. NO. 289.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Jockey Thorpe is accused of being the oldest jockey now riding actively. He has a little, weazened face, small, bead-like eyes, and sallow complexion. He might be 35 years of age or he might be 50. His face is not a telltale. One day as Thorpe stood on the scales making his weight Sloan sneaked up behind him and said to an outsider:

"Mr. —, is it so that the Jockey Club has passed a rule that riders must give up work after they're fifty?"

Thorpe turned slowly around and there was a twinkle in his eye as he looked squarely at the midget and said:

"I don't know, Methusalem; you ain't in the infant class along with Winfield Hancock O'Connor and Danny Maher yourself by a good deal."

Talking of Sloan and his English success the silly yarn about his engagement to ride for the Prince of Wales is denied with authority.

Riley Grannan is now in England. He reached there in time to witness the closing day's sport of the English flat racing season, which practically ends November 27. Grannan is reported to have been playing the stock market, sugar chiefly, with fair success, thus retrieving some of the losses he sustained during the racing season.

Jack McDonald is to race in England next season. Rensselaer has already landed in Newmarket. Tom Leaders is to handle him. Rensselaer is to become a jumper and may try for the Paris Hurdle Handicap, one of the richest events of the year on the French turf. Leaders prepared Count Schomburg when that noted distance performer won the race, and he should know something about the event and the kind of a horse it would take to have a chance. They put much better horses over the sticks on the other side of the water than we do here, and it takes a first-class performer on the flat to win such a race as the Paris Hurdle Handicap. Rensselaer, should he winter well, should be the ideal horse for such a venture. He has the size and weight, carrying ability, possesses speed of a high order, and can stay over any distance of ground. Of course he will run on the flat also, and should win in almost any company.

There is likely to be a much higher class lot of horses performing cross country in America next year. The owners of the sulking and broken down sprinters found the season of 1896 far from profitable, the young and sound horses winning nearly all of the money. The advisability of putting horses of fair class over the sticks was indicated clearly by the performance of Sir Vassar and Forget.

COUGLE & CREVELING DISSOLVE.

The racing firm of Coughle & Creveling has been harmoniously dissolved, Charles H. Coughle retiring. His share of the stable, Abe Fashion, Ferd Owen and Fontumka, has been sold to C. G. Craddock. The three colts will winter at Roby and probably go to the Rome Stable in the spring. Clem Creveling retains Ulysses, and has shipped him to St. Louis where he will winter.

MEMPHIS GUARANTEES ITS STAKES.

Memphis builds its nine stake events of the spring of 1899 on the added money plan. There will be 19 days of racing at Montgomery Park, beginning April 9 and ending April 30.

The stakes offered are as follows:
Gaston Hotel Stakes, for 2-year-old colts and geldings, $1,000 added; four furlongs.
Ardelle Stakes, for 2-year-old fillies, $1,000 added; four furlongs.

New Gayoso Hotel Stakes (a selling sweepstakes), for 2-year-olds, $1,000 guaranteed; four furlongs.

The Memphis Stakes, for 2-year-olds, $1,000 added; five furlongs.

Luehrmann Hotel Stakes, for 3-year-olds, $1,500 guaranteed; one mile.

The Montgomery Handicap, for 3-year-olds and upward, $1,200 added; one and one-sixteenth miles.

Tennessee Brewing Company Stakes, for 3-year-olds and upward (a selling sweepstakes), $1,000 added; seven furlongs.

Peabody Hotel Handicap, for 3-year-olds and upward, $1,500 guaranteed. One and one-eighth miles.

The Cotton Stakes (steeplechase), for 3-year-olds and upward, $750 added; about two miles.

The Tennessee Derby for 1899, for 3-year-olds, $3,000 added; one and one-eighth miles.

The Tennessee Oaks for 1899, for 3-year-old fillies, $1,000 added; one mile.

Entries for the Tennessee Derby for 1898 closed last January, with 66 nominations. The second payment of $20 will be due January 15. This stake has a guaranteed value of $5,000, and among those yet eligible are Hamburg, Howland, Bannockburn, Lieber Karl, Sacket, Jack-anapes, Gallivant, Isabey, Swango, Candleblack, Libation, Bequeath, Bounding, Eitholin, Verity and Bashi Bazouk.

Winner—Br. f. 4, by Fitzjames—Springlike.
Start good. Won handily. There was a keen drive for the place. Summertime was best and most fortunate. Clawson rode her beautifully. Santuzza and Hohenzollern ran themselves to pieces in pacemaking. Santuzza was unlucky. Hohenzollern was short and interfered with on the first turn. B & W is best in mud. He was eased up at the end. So was Colorado, who was short. He was sharply shut off on the first turn. Atticus was not among his own.
Overweights—B & W, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c. 6, by Baltic—Mollie.
Start good. Won ridden out. Ban was best and luckiest. The Bug has no excuses. He was merely outrun. His race was to the notch. Watch Kammin. He is improving. He favors soft going, needs a strong rider and no route is too long for him. Will needs hard going. Schnitz is at home on a soft track, but was short. Elano and Heritage were hampered at the start and had easy races. The latter is a sprinter and likes the mud. Throw out this race.
Scratched—Snowdown, 105; Hyman, 105; Charley Boots, 105; Navy Blue, 105.
Overweights—Gold Bug, 2 pounds; Elano, 2; Miss Ruth, 2.

3054	BE HAPPY	86	7	9	8	9	10	10	Devine	T H Boyle	100	200	100	150

Winner—B. c. 2, by Duncombe—Spinning Time.
Start straggling. Won ridden out. Spunwell was luckiest and Plan the best. Both incline to light weight and will race best under it. Spunwell was well managed and took the short route. Plan was badly ridden, shut off on the first turn and closed strong. Ball got a bad ride and was killed off by pacemaking. Marplot was not well ridden. He needs stronger handling, took the long route and ran around his field. San Mateo was used vilely and ran off his feet in early pacemaking. His forte is sprinting. The same applies to Catawba. Watch Attainment. She was short and badly ridden. Needs strong handling and seems to favor a distance. Einstein ran a good race after being pinched off at the start. Burnham and Happy were outclassed.
Scratched—Colonel Dan, 89; Outlay, 89.

3102 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Three Cheers—Gold Cup.
Start good. Grady was best, luckiest and won eased up. The race was peculiarly run. It was a mere sprint of a quarter mile on the end. Souffle was outrun in the final dash. She seems best in soft going. Clarencio was unlucky and Meadow Lark badly ridden.
Scratched—Gov. Budd, 100.
Overweights—Souffle, 2 pounds.

Start good. Won easily. Mainstay is in rare form and outclassed his field. He was interfered with at the start. Tim Murphy is good and ran an honest race. La Mascota was interfered with at start and on first turn and poorly handled. Veragua can be tabbed for early action. He ran short today. The race will screw him up. Charles A was short, favors moist going and was out of his class. Tab him. Smith was short too. He will do best on soft going and is nearly ready. The others are of no account.

Scratched—Torsion, 105; Zarro, 105; Yemen, 105; St Aignon, 108; Monitor, 108; Easel, 108; Palmerston, 108; Ivy, 108; Don Fulano, 108; Elmer F, 112.

Winner—B. f. by St. Carlo—Calatine.
Start good. Won ridden out. This was another race with a loitering beginning and a fast final quarter. Calatine was well ridden and lucky. Flanders was short, yet should have won. He was unlucky, likes a route and is game. So is Fonsavannah. He likes a route too, but has staled and needs a rest. Prietos was always outrun and eased up at end. He seems to have been dulled in keying him for a route. Philip and Collis were outclassed.
